A STANDARD POLITICAL WORK.

McPHERSON'S

Political History of the Rebellion.

THE Political History of the United States during the Rebellion—extending from November 8, 1860, to July 4, 1864, by Hon. EDWARD MCPHERSON, Clerk of the House of Representatives of the United States, is destined to become a standard authority concerning these stirring times, and is among the most useful and interesting books now before the public. It contains the various State Papers of the period—Executive, Judicial, Legislative—and those of the Military which bear upon political questions; also the Propositions submitted to, and the Laws enacted by Congress, with the vote in each House, upon every leading question, such as Secession, Arrests, Habeas Corpus, Compensated Emancipation, and every phase of the slavery question; also the "Legal Tender," State Taxation, and other features of our financial legislation, with Tables of the National and Rebel Debt; all the Military Legislation, including every Proposition and vote at the last Session respecting the Draft, and all the Propositions for the last four years, in reference to the Objects of the War and its Prosecution, to Peace and Reconstruction, with the votes thereon, in both the Union and Rebel Congresses—a record, of itself, worth the price of the book. It also contains a full and fair record of the proceedings in and out of Congress, between the Presidential Election of 1860 and the breaking out of the War; including a statement of each Adjustment Proposition made, and votes taken, and all other data necessary to give a clear view of that event, in all its bearings and relations. It also contains the names of the persons composing the Union and Rebel Administrations and Congresses, with the changes therein, and such of the Rebel Legislation, Judicial Rulings, Proclamations, Orders, and Items, as throw light upon the progress of events—the work forming a magazine of facts arranged in logical order, or grouped in natural harmony, and constituting a most valuable contribution to the Historical literature of the country. In all the votes, parties are classified. The Index is thorough, both as to names and subjects, giving the reader entire command of the contents.

Choice Poetry.

THE HOME OF OUR CHILDHOOD.

BY KENTON HARPER.

[Written in the Album of Mrs. Gooding, Fort Washington, Indian Territory.]

The home of our childhood—how sweet is the thought!

How tender the memories with which it is fraught!

Through our pathway be happy, the mind still will stray.

Mid the scenes and affections of life's early day.

The home of our childhood—A Mother was there,

A mother, dear mother—whose love and whose care,

From the dawn of existence entwined round the heart.

A feeling whose memory can never depart.

The home of our childhood—A Father's fond look

Was on his brow, and his hand was never far from

His sweet to recall—his love never forget.

How sweet to recall—his love never forget.

How sweet to recall—his love never forget.

The home of our childhood—yet others were there.

The comforts and joys of that blessed home to share.

The brothers—the sisters—oh, loved ones were they.

With whom we nestled at night, and united in play.

But the home of our childhood—how clouded is it now!

As we think of the past there—a shadow on the brow.

Its fond links are broken—its heart—stone is cold.

It seems but a dream—"like a tale that is told."

Fort WASHINGTON, Indian Territory.

MARCH MUSIC.

March winds are the preludes grand and bold

To the summer of the year—

To the music of the sea—

To the music of the air—

To the music of the heart—

When the merry birds are here.

See how the answering ocean leaps,

To smother its own chain;

And the sunlight roves

Through the coral groves,

Down deep in the restless main.

March is the prelude that ushers in

The story of coming hours.

Of the hills and dales,

With the language of the flowers.

Look! as the hurrying blast goes by,

How the crocus starts to grow,

And the violet blue,

Peep out from their beds of snow.

March is to summer what earth-life

Should be to the life above—

A prelude sweet

To the joys complete

That bloom in the land of love.

Hisself and home.

Happy at Home.

The little staid of every day habit, floating slowly and silently down the stream of life, shows very plainly which way the tide sets. And when Mrs. Purple says, with a groan, "My husband never spends his evenings at home," it is natural to inquire within one's self why it is that Mr. Purple finds other resorts so much more attractive than the household altar!

"I don't see why he can't be a little more domestic," says Mrs. Purple.

Well, why is it? There is a reason for everything in the world, say philosophers,

and there must be a reason for this.

In the first place, Mrs. Purple is one of those unfortunate housekeepers whose work is never done. There is always something dragging—a room to be swept, lamps to be trimmed—fretful babies to be put to sleep,

while one eye is on the broiling meat, and the other on the muddy footprint unwittingly left by Mr. Purple on the doorstep.

"There, Purple, I knew just what it would be. I wonder if you know the use of a scraper or a door mat. I should think after all the time I've spent in cleaning up—"

And Mrs. Purple goes off into a monotonous recapitulation of her troubles and trials that has all the effect of a lullaby

upon the baby, however trying it may be

Manners of American Ladies.

The following is a pretty good story of life

at a watering place, and will be found amusing. The allusion to the fig leaf is elo-quently significant:

"American ladies shrink from appearing in full dress, however moderate it is called fullness, in a stall or in the open box of a theatre, or at the dinner table of a hotel,

which is open to the public, and where they may be in close proximity to entire strangers of whom they know only that they can afford to pay for their seats or their dinners.

The distinction made in this respect is very marked at the opera, to which ladies do go in full dress, and from the opera to parties. But they never go in full dress unless they have a private box. In the stalls, the parquet, on the first tier of boxes, where single seats are sold, they appear in elegant

don't-let-it-often wearing bonnets of incomprehensible structure and wonderful to behold. And this is not a matter of 'set' or fashion. The same woman will be at the opera on one evening in full dress in a prirate box, and at the next performance in the stalls or the parquet, with arms, shoulders and head uncovered. A lady had rather an unpleasant experience in an attempt

some years ago to disregard this tacit understanding among the sex in regard to dress at the theatre. She belonged to an ultra fashionable set, and having married a

South Carolina planter, soon adopted what we call 'plantation manners,' and affected

no little scorn of simple manners, reserved

our great seaside watering place, and having just returned from Europe, took great airs upon herself. One evening at a tea table a gentleman sat down near her, and the butter plate before him happening to have no butter knife by it at the moment,

he, instead of calling the waiter for one, believed, used his own better finger, fresh bright knife to take a bit of butter. He was a man of culture and social standing,

but a Yankee, and one whose social pretension she wished to scoff. She seized the opportunity, and, calling a waiter, said, in an elaborately subdued, but decided tone:

"Take away that butter. That gentleman has had his knife in it."

He took no notice of the remark, which drew all eyes upon him and upon the lady;

but by and by she stretched out her hand

and took from the plate some chipper dried beef which stood between her and her victum. This was well enough, of course; but he turned at once, and, calling a waiter,

said, only as if he were asking for more tea:

"Take away that dried beef, this lady has had her fingers in it."

In this encounter, such as it was, he was thought to have had the best of it, and he did not forgive or forget. So, a few days afterwards, they being at dinner, she, conspicuous in the full dress she had adopted

since her tour to Europe, and which was so very 'full' that it would have attracted attention under any circumstances, took one from a dish of fresh figs before her, and,

putting it on a plate, handed it to him with an expression of complaisance, but saying in a tone of unmistakable significance, which could be heard all around her:

"A fig for you, sir."

He accepted it graciously, and, taking in his turn a leaf from the garniture of the dish, offered it to her with—

"A fig-leaf for you, madam."

She fled the table, and kept her room

until her intended victim left the hotel.

STOCK THAT PAYS DIVIDENDS IN GOLD

TRE MOUNT VISTA
Gold & Silver Mining Company
PAYS DIVIDENDS IN GOLD ON ITS CAPITAL STOCK.
THIS Company's claim consists of 2,600 feet on Detroit Ledge, Buena Vista Mining District, Humboldt County, Nevada, and joins the corporation line of Unionville, the country seat of Humboldt County.
The claim is one of the best, and when fully developed will yield equal to the best paying mines on the Pacific coast. Those claims that have been thoroughly tested have paid to the stockholders immense fortunes, among which we might mention the GOULD & CURRY, the Hale & Norcross, and several in the quantity and quality of ore, and the cheapness and abundance of labor, in the established character of the lodes, and the inherited experience of centuries, are more than compensated by our superior machinery, intelligence, enterprise and industry. No other silver mine now produces so much silver annually as the Mount Vista.
The "Virginia District" is now the greatest and most productive mining district in the world. We do not say the richest, for many others have richer and more abundant ores. (Meaning the Humboldt region.) But the advantages which there are in the quantity and quality of the ore, and the cheapness and abundance of labor, in the established character of the lodes, and the inherited experience of centuries, are more than compensated by our superior machinery, intelligence, enterprise and industry. No other silver mine now produces so much silver annually as the Mount Vista.

THE GROVESTEEN PIANO FORTE still retains its popularity and is becoming more and more popular for a period of thirty years, is now pronounced by the musical world to be unsurpassed and unequalled in richness, volume, and purity of tone, durability and cheapness. Our new scale, French action, harp pedal, iron frame, over-string bass, seven octave, rosewood piano we are selling, cheaper by $100 to $200 than the best style and finish are sold by any other first-class makers in the country. Dealers and all in want of good pianos are invited to send for our Descriptive Catalogue, which contains photographs of our different styles, together with prices. No one should purchase a piano without seeing this Catalogue. Medals, almost without number, have been awarded to the Grovesteen Piano, and at the Celebrated World's Fair, though put in competition with pianos from all parts of Europe and the United States, it took the highest award.

CATARREH CURED FOR ONE DOLLAR.
READ!—For one dollar per mail, I will send free to any address a recipe and medicine that I will guarantee to cure the worst cases of Catarrh in the head or bronchial tubes in a few weeks. It has saved my life, and made me a well man, from Catarrh and a severe and dangerous bronchial trouble I had suffered with for years. I tried the best physicians, and all the advertised medicines of the day, but found no relief till I obtained this. I would give one hundred dollars for this recipe and the medicine if I were to have the Catarrh and could not obtain it less. I believe, if instructions are followed, it will cure any case whatever, that has not already reached the lungs and become a settled consumption. Cure it while you can.

THE SILVER SKIRT!

MORE DURABLE,

MORE ELASTIC,

MORE GRACEFUL,

And will keep its Shape and retain its Place

better than any other Skirt.

This new and beautiful style of Skirt (Patented March 7, 1865,) was awarded by the Great American Institute Fair, held in New York, October, 1865.

A SILVER MEDAL!

the highest premium ever given for a Hoop

Skirt.

The Steel Springs are wound with a fine plated wire (in place of a cotton covering)

which will not wear off or become soiled, and the whole Skirt may be washed without injury or fear of rusting, and will be as good as new.

THE COMBINATION SILVER SKIRT!

This invention combines with the ordinary cotton Skirt the advantages of our Silver

Skirt; the bottom hoops are the same as those used in the Silver Skirt, the covering of which cannot wear off, while the upper ones are covered with cotton. No lady wearing once worn one of our Skirts will be willing to wear any other, as the lower hoops

of all other kinds are soon injured and soiled.

The best materials are used in their construction, and, from their durability and neatness, they are destined to become

A FAVORITE SKIRT!

Manufactured solely by the Silver Skirt

and Wire Manufacturing Company,

THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL TIMES.

Published every week at $1.50 a year, in advance.

JOHN S. HART, L.D.,

1. NEWTON BAKER, A. M., Editors.

THIS Journal is now the recognized leading organ of the Sabbath-School cause in our country, circulating throughout all of the States and Territories, and growing in favor year by year among the thousands of superintendents and teachers who are its constant readers. Being unsectarian, and connected with no Institution, or Society, it advocates and exemplifies the spirit and principle of Union in the Sabbath-School, and in every other Christian work; draws its encouragement and information from all denominations, and endeavors to note the progress and to speak the truth candidly and lovingly of all.

THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL TIMES is a live, wide-awake, practical paper, one that no superintendent or teacher, who wishes to be helped to improvement and success in his labor of love, can well afford to be without. The publishers are gratified to be able to announce that they have secured as regular and occasional contributors an able corps of writers, including some of the leading Sunday-School spirits of the land.

OUR CONTRIBUTORS.—Rev. Richard Newton, D.D., Rev. John Todd, D.D., Rev. J. T. Crane, D.D., Rev. Joseph Alden, D.D., Rev. Morris C. Surphen, Rev. J. Heyl Vincent, Rev. Henry C. Taylor, Rev. Alfred Taylor, Rev. A. E. McElroy, Ralph Wells, and R. G. Parvise. Also, Mrs. J. E. McConaghy, Miss Caroline E. Kelly, Miss Catharine M. Trowbridge, Mrs. Ellen Huntington Gates, and many others whose names we need not mention—who under modest names of plumes contribute to the enjoyment and edification of our readers.

No effort and care will be spared to make this journal increasingly worthy, by calling to our aid every application that is calculated to help the teacher to improvement in his arduous and blessed work. Let every superintendent examine this journal, and if satisfied that it is what it claims to be, aid in extending its circulation.

Prof. LANGE'S GREAT COMMENTARY, on St. Matthew. Large Octavo, 608 pages. Price, $5.

The Commentary will be given by us on the following terms:
